July report

Work on the launch of the Loving Parent Guidebook has continued. Many meetings with the Publishing Committee to know how we should handle a release in Europe for English printed literature.

We are close to a solution now and orders have been received to buy the book from over 10 different countries around Europe, which is very positive.

We have continued to work for a European Region to become a reality together with members from different countries around Europe.

We have had another meeting where we have, among other things, investigated what legal ways there are to go, among other places, Sweden and Denmark to register a non-profit organization with members from all over Europe.

It is not difficult, and it does not cost much money.

We continue to research and invite members who want to be part of this process.

Anyone is welcome to attend meetings that are the last Monday of each month at 19:00 CET.

Everyone is welcome and you do not have to take on any service to participate.

A lot is about coming up with ideas and spreading the message about a European region around to The Fellowships in Europe.

We have also seriously started working for the 7th European Annual Event. We are looking for speakers, WS - holders and more.

In addition to this, this year we have invited more and more people to our meetings about the annual event. If you want to be involved, do not hesitate and contact us.

We are also talking this year about trying to make a hybrid. In previous years it have been usual to hold the annual event in connection with a country releasing a new book in its own language.

That is why this year we have been in contact with a couple of countries releasing their translated books this year, to find out if they are interested in helping to arrange this.

In addition to the above, we have also had a number of meetings with various Intergroups about literature, service issues and more.

If you want regular updates on what is going on in Europe, visit our website and register for the newsletter at the bottom of this page:
