Treasurer's Corner

How important are financial reports?

Often times a group will just pass over the financial reports in their business meeting agenda and rely on the treasurer to let them know if they need more money to cover the expenses. This is a dangerous habit to get into as it puts all of the financial responsibility on one person. A group that actively reviews its financials can make better decisions about its expenses and contributions to other service entities like intergroups, regions, and WSO.

Being in the know about where the money goes is also important to prevent those instances where trusted servants deviate from their role and take the group's funds for their own personal use. Nothing is worse than learning your group's treasury has disappeared and no one saw it coming. Ask for a financial report at your next business meeting as it is an important part of a healthy functioning group. It also lets the treasurer know you are interested in the finances.

About Adult Children of Alcoholics (ACA)

ACA is a worldwide 12 Step / 12 Tradition program of recovery dedicated to people who were raised in dysfunctional families. ACA does not seek to assign blame to parents or caretakers, but we seek to understand the reality of how family dysfunctions affected us as children and still affects our adult behavior today.

Family dysfunction can include alcoholism, abandonment, neglect, or any type of addiction or abuse. ACA is synonymous with ACoA & Adult Children of Alcoholics and Dysfunctional Families.
